To be clear, the LPKY Constitution says 5 business days, not just 5 days, within the section of the Constitution regarding email voting. Business days are generally considered Monday through Friday and exclude public holidays.

That said, I don't believe there will be any further discussion. I wasn't planning on any more. And since you all seem to be ready to vote, I'll vote too and we can assume no one will object.

Over my concern regarding the limited space, I am voting no.

The motion passes 3-1.

I vote yes. Let's make sure we keep up with count and work with venue to change setup plan as needed. They can probably do half theatre half classroom or something similar if we go way over expected count.
