Agenda Approval

Agenda was approved without objection

Treasurer's Report

- Jody had attempted to address the issues with KREF, but had been unable reach them thus far in order to do so
- Jody brought up that campaign finance laws might be changing next year, and wants everyone to be conscious of this potential

Old Business

- Discussion between Jeremy and Jody concerning arranging time to address the bank account
- Short discussion about the recent No Kings event, not attended due to petition drive
- Short discussion about candidates that was brought up in the previous business meeting

New Business

- Wendy Higdon State Senate special election signature drive discussion.
 - Current count potentially in the 75% range
- Short discussion about Loren Bowman, someone who had expressed an interest in potentially running for mayor (Louisville)
 - Discussion about the implications of and considerations surrounding non-partisan race endorsements
- Update from Jeremy on attempts to identify the individual in the LPKY excom chat who had expressed an interest in running.
 - Unable to identify the person with certainty
- Victoria Medley, potential US Senate candidate briefly discussed
- Karl iterated his interest in running for State House
- Jody submitted Kelsey Westbrook as a potential candidate
 - He might speak to her about this
- County convention discussion led by Dale
 - Have to have an agenda item for optional recall
 - There is an option to add aux excom members in even-numbered years
 - The option of nominating candidates
- Brief discussion about potential county party convention date ideas

Adjournment
